

It should be easier to register complaints. It is well known that "The Real Michael Steele" manager and DJ of a local radio station, KBLQ 92.9 FM, uses promotional items to procure sexual favors from women. He rigs contests for women to win. He gives away prizes donated by advertizers to women in exchange for sex. Letters have been written and complaints made to the station owner, and nothing is done, because the girls and women are over 18. How will this ever stop? The complaint process is a joke and does not address this CLEAR violation of FEDERAL and state law by this man.
